Lost and found: Jamie Neale, left, was missing for nearly two weeks in the Australian wilderness

BACK FROM THE DEAD

Teen denies lying about being lost in the bush

THE 19-year-old backpacker who was found alive 12 days after getting lost in the Australian bush has strenuously denied newspaper claims that it was an elaborate hoax.

Jamie Neale, from Everington Road in Muswell Hill, was reunited with his father Richard Cass after being found by campers at just before noon last Wednesday.

But it has been alleged in Australian newspapers that he has made the story up – after it emerged that he stands to make thousands of pounds through an exclusive deal with a celebrity agent based in Sydney.

An exclusive interview with 60 Minutes, an Australian current affairs programme, is reported to have netted him up to £100,000 already.

The teenager told the show that he lived on seeds and berries, not knowing if they were poisonous: “I thought I would starve to death, which is something I really didn’t want to happen. I just took a risk and ate them. I didn’t know they weren’t poisonous, but I just took a risk,” he said.

The teenager went missing in the Blue Mountains, 30 miles from Sydney, after going for a bush walk on July 3.

Rescuers described his survival as a near miracle after he faced freezing night temperatures and lived on seeds and vegetation for nearly two weeks.

Mr Neale admitted he had underestimated his surroundings. “In the UK you walk for a day and you end up at a pub, out here you can get lost so easily,” he said. “I was overconfident and I didn’t respect the seriousness of the situation.”

On being rescued, he said: “I was just crying for about 20 minutes, being able to hear people I never thought I would hear again.”

Jamie left his hostel in nearby Katoomba on July 3 to go for a hike, but the alarm was raised when he failed to turn up for a pre-booked tour of caves in the Blue Mountains.

The teenager rubbished claims he had lied about his ordeal, saying: “People can say what they want, but I’m not lying. It is the truth. I know what’s happened and I know the people who were searching for me know that it happened, and that’s enough for me.”

Jamie, who was eventually found nine miles from Katoomba after wandering into the wilderness, slept under trees and logs to stay warm and even ate nettles to survive. A spokesman for New South Wales police said that the search for Jamie had covered more than 100 sq km.

Jamie is set to fly to Paris after spending time with relatives in Perth.

Residents vow to keep up the fight against Wards Corner

By Henry Ellis

THE fight to stop the Wards Corner development going ahead suffered a blow last week after the High Court refused campaigners a judicial review into Haringey Council's decision to give the scheme the green light.

But members of the Wards Corner Community Coalition have vowed to fight and are set to launch an appeal.

Developers Grainger want to build 197 homes as well as retail units on the site between Tottenham High Road, Seven Sisters Road and West Green Road. But protesters say it will ruin a thriving Latin market.

The council granted planning permission in December.

A WCCC spokeswoman said: "Despite losing the first round of the legal battle, we have vowed to keep fighting to ensure we get the right outcome for Wards Corner and its community. This has moved the campaign on to new levels. Now more than ever we must prove the decision to pass the Grainger plan was unjust."

The group argues that the decision did not take into account the importance of the racial diversity in the area which will be affected if the scheme goes ahead.

David Walters, a spokesman for Grainger, said: "We are obviously delighted that the judge dismissed the judicial review and ruled that Haringey Council's original decision to grant planning permission is sound."

"Now the court has confirmed the permission is valid, we are back on track, and able to continue our vision for making the regeneration of Seven Sisters the success the community deserves."

"There is still a lot of work to be done with all parties before we can start on site, however, this is a step forward and we are committed to regenerating this long-neglected area of London."

Tribal dance is the business

STUDENTS performed the traditional dance of New Zealand's Maoris, the Haka, on Friday at a fete celebrating diversity.

The pupils from Woodside High School, in White Hart Lane, Wood Green, have been preparing the dance as part of a series of events celebrating the school's business and enterprise status during Enterprise Week.

A calendar featuring students' artwork was created before going on sale at the school fete. As well as the Haka, which has been made famous by the country's rugby team, visitors were treated to music, drama and dance performances, massages, a magic show and balloon modelling.

Zara Cheng, business and enterprise co-ordinator at the school, said: "The children were really looking forward to the event and we really wanted Haringey's community to get involved."

"Local businesses have been on board and the children have been creating all sorts of arts and crafts products that went on sale."

"As part of our international work, all funds raised at the fete will be donated to The Vuwani Secondary School, which is our sister school in South Africa."

Soldier killed by gunmen in Ireland gets plaque honour

A PLAQUE is set to be put up to commemorate the life of a young soldier killed on duty in Northern Ireland.

Twenty-one-year-old Patrick Azimkar, from Wood Green, who had served with the Royal Engineers since 2005, was shot dead in March by dissident republican gunmen from The Real IRA outside his barracks in Antrim.

The attack came just hours before his unit was due to be shipped out for active duty in Afghanistan.

Following discussions between Patrick's parents and Haringey Council, it has been decided that a plaque will be a fitting tribute and a suitable site will now be found.

Patrick's mother, Geraldine, said: "We are very pleased with this decision and very proud of Patrick and what he achieved."

"Patrick was born and bred in Haringey and always lived here. We are delighted that Haringey is recognising his bravery and courage."

Mayor of Haringey Bernice Vanier said: "Patrick gave his life serving his country. We wanted to make sure there was some permanent tribute as a way of commemorating his life and the sacrifice he made for his country."

Friends Patrick and fellow sapper Mark Quinsey, 23, died in a hail of bullets on March 7 after they were ambushed as they left the Massareene Barracks to pay for a pizza delivery. In what was roundly condemned attack, the two masked gunmen stood over the bodies of the dying squaddies to make sure they had finished the job.

Two other soldiers and two pizza delivery drivers were hurt in the attack. Four men, including a prominent republican, have been arrested and charged over the murders.

Jobless levels 40 per cent higher than elsewhere in London

By Elinor Harrison

UNEMPLOYMENT levels in Haringey are more than 40 per cent higher than the average for the rest of London.

According to a report published by the National Office for Statistics this week, unemployment in the borough has rocketed to six per cent, compared to the London average of 4.2 per cent, leaving almost 10,000 people jobless in Haringey.

The men of Haringey have been worst hit with more than twice as many men as women finding themselves out of work.

In response to the figures, the Haringey branch of the TUC union has renewed its calls for more decisive action to put a stop to job losses.

Keith Flett, president of Haringey TUC, said: "Given the severity and impact of unemployment in the borough, more up-front action needs to be taken."

The trade unionists are urging political leaders in Haringey to put the government under pressure to subsidise employers to prevent job losses. They claim a similar scheme saved thousands of jobs in Wales and could do the same here.

Mr Flett pointed to a previous scheme which successfully subsidised unemployed people from Haringey to work in Stansted Airport, as an example of how effective this approach could be.

He said: "While some action may be being taken behind the scenes, both council members and MPs need to be more vocal about this issue."

Award-winning book club turns the pages on a

By

Dickens

Pub crawls, poetry and a love of the written word

WHEN they tentatively set up a web page asking for people to join them in reading books, Southgate bookworms Paul Drinkwater and Dawn Barnes had no idea of the success story they might create.

But now the North London Reading Group they began has made the shortlist of the 2009 Penguin Orange Reader's Group Prize, hatched a network of four book clubs with more than 100 members, and attracts scores of new enquiries each week.

Paul and Dawn first met when they found themselves starting another club, the Oxford Reading Group, in 2003. The club, like their relationship, went from strength to strength.

When they moved to Southgate in 2007, the couple decided to appeal to fellow bibliophiles who wanted to meet new people and discover north London's pubs along the way.

Thirty-two-year-old self-confessed book addict Dawn said: "Our group is about bringing people together and being exposed to writers," says Dawn, speaking just after hearing that they had missed out on that coveted Orange-Penguin gong.

"We were a bit gutted not to win," she laughed, while admitting to being a dismayed that the prize went to a book club based entirely online – especially as the Readers' Group Prize was originally set up to encourage clubs that make reading more sociable.

"I suppose we weren't surprised with the result, given the popularity of websites like Myspace, Facebook and Twitter, but that's a bit lonely really, with kids just sitting on their own at home with a computer."

The North London Reading Group makes good use of all types of online media like Facebook and Twitter, but the real point is to meet up in person, over a refreshing pint, to discuss books.

"By getting together face to face, like we do, you get to meet people and discover new places all over London," said Dawn.

In these gloomy days of recession, it is clear that more and more Londoners are turning back to books as a more affordable pastime. Reading groups offer the perfect way to meet others who share an interest that will not break the bank. They can use libraries and bookstore discounts to indulge their love of the printed word.

story of growing social literary fun and games

BOOKS have also received a big boost from popular television book clubs, like Richard and Judy, and more recently from the online book club started by Jonathan Ross, called the Wossy Book Club.

"Let's face it, reading used to be considered a bit of a geek fest, but it's becoming OK to read," says public relations executive Dawn. The reading group has received more than 50 enquiries since it appeared on the Orange Penguin Prize shortlist a few weeks ago.

IT is hard to ignore the social element of this rapidly growing book society. As well as meeting monthly at pubs on the Piccadilly line from Southgate to Kings Cross, the club has organised successful literary walks, parties and meet-the-author events.

With members mostly aged between 25 and 35, Dawn would certainly like to make the group more diverse.

She sighs before admitting: "The make-up of the group is a bit disappointing."

"Although we have people working in a variety of different professions, from teachers to engineers, having people of different ages and from wider backgrounds would definitely make it more interesting."

"People come to our meetings

Tunnels of love: Members en route for another journey from as far away as Acton. It would be really cool to set up a book group for each area around North London."

Although the meet-ups can spark some lively debate, sometimes there is a general agreement across the board, but Dawn adds: "It's rubbish when people agree on something."

Fake passport merchants imprisoned

A COUNTERFEITER from Tottenham has been jailed after admitting his part in a massive fake passport operation.

Rodolpho Gomes, 28, of Fairbourne Road, was sentenced to three years and nine months behind bars and Liuz Antonio De Oliveria, 23, from Stoke Newington, was sentenced to two years in jail after police raided a flat being used as a passport factory.

During the investigation the police observed the two men making frequent visits to a house Gomes was renting in Philip Lane. Police searches revealed the house to be a heavily equipped forgery factory, capable of producing thousands of fake passports, ID cards and driving licences.

A computer, a scanner, a specialist printer for producing plastic cards, glue, laminates and UV lights were found at the flat.

Similar tools were also found in De Oliveria's home.

Following the raids Gomes and De Oliveria were both charged with possession of articles to make identity documents and conspiracy to supply.

The men pleaded guilty at Wood Green Crown Court last month and were sentenced on Thursday.

Detective Inspector Clive Strong of the Met's Economic and Specialist Crime Command said: "This result is an example of the work undertaken by Operation Maxim. The quantity of items seized from the flat highlights the amount of documents that this organised criminal organisation were producing. This seizure has prevented more than 2,000 forged passports reaching the streets of London."

Axe and gun gang rob cash-n-carry

By Elinor Harrison

A VIOLENT armed robbery of a cash and carry left two workers wounded after they refused to co-operate with crooks.

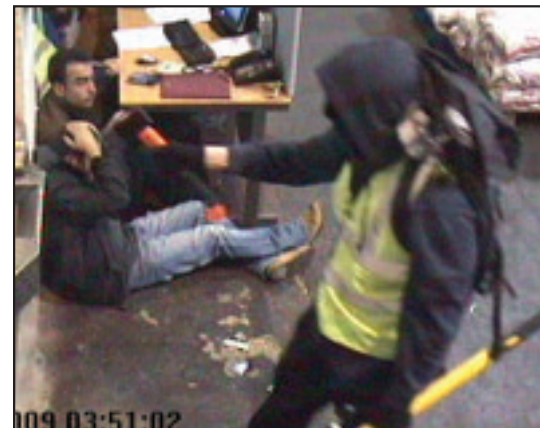

Three men, armed with an axe, a gun and a sledge hammer, stormed the Cyprofood Warehouse, in Tariff Road, Tottenham, at 3.45pm last Monday.

The robbers shouted at the employees and terrified customers, telling them to lie on the floor and keep their heads down before accosting two workers and demanding they open the store's safe. When Hayrullah Segmen, 29, and Galip Sancak, 35, bravely refused they were assaulted by the hooded intruders, wearing luminous vests.

Mr Segmen was attacked with the axe, leaving his shoulder badly wounded, while Mr Sancak was shot in the arm.

The robbers grabbed Mr Segmen by his neck and pressed the gun to his head, threatening to kill him if the safe was not opened up.

Faced with no alternative, Mr Sancak unlocked the safe and the three robbers made their escape in a small white van,

Axe man: Shop workers were forced to open the safe taking thousands of pounds with them.

Cetin Agcagul, purchasing and sales manager of Cyprofood, applauded the bravery of his employees and said he understood why they had ultimately yielded to the demands of their attackers. He said: "Mr Sancak was scared at the time, he had a bullet in his arm when they tried to get into the safe."

It is the second time in just over a year that the store has been hit by armed robbers.

Following a similar robbery in June last year, the managers installed a metal door to protect the safe and a panic button. Mr Agcagul added: "There's probably nothing more we can legally do."

Anyone with information should call police on 020 8358 1751 or Crimestoppers anonymously on 0800 555 111.

film Sam's the starman

Moon (15)

Dir: Duncan Jones
Starring: Sam Rockwell, Dominique McElligott and the voice of Kevin Spacey.

DAVID BOWIE's son Duncan Jones makes an auspicious directorial debut with this haunting, science-fiction drama by Nathan Parker.

Traversing similar terrain to 2001: A Space Odyssey and Alien, Jones dons his moon boots for a haunting meditation on alienation and solitude, set more than 200,000 miles from planet Earth.

The director works closely with production designer Tony Noble and director of photography Gary Shaw to evoke a mesmerising, retro-futuristic aesthetic on an incredibly tight budget, augmented with realistic visual effects.

In the near future, Earth's natural resources have been dangerously depleted and mankind searches the heavens for salvation. On the moon, Lunar Industries employee Sam Bell (Rockwell) single-handedly oversees the harvesting of the Helium-3 isotope – our primary fuel source.

During a routine visit to one of the harvesting machines, Sam's health deteriorates and he wakes in sickbay to the familiar voice of resident computer Gerty (Spacey), with no recollection how he got back to base. Sam longs to piece together the gap in his memory, but the computer is oddly evasive.

Sole searcher: The loneliness of a one-man mission to the Moon

"I'm sorry Sam. I'm under orders not to let you outside," reveals Gerty in unsettling monotone, recalling Hal from Stanley Kubrick's 2001 opus.

The astronaut's mounting paranoia turns to confusion when he comes face-to-face with a clone (Rockwell again), who is programmed to complete the same three-year mission.

Alone on-screen for almost every frame, Rockwell delivers a com-PELLING performance that captures the loneliness and frustrations of a man living in isolation on the far side of the moon. He runs the gamut of the character's fluctuating emotions, performing against himself as the two Sams work together to discover how they fit into Lunar's plans.

Spacey assumes a pivotal supporting role with his vocals, which almost humanise the computer, and there is a palpable tinge of sadness when the Sams consider abandoning Gerty to make their escape.

Now Showing...

Brüno (18)

The most cringeworthy, pseudo-documentary laugh-riot of the year has arrived. Borat probably shades it but there are still enough hilarious set pieces from Sacha Baron Cohen as the camper-than-Christmas, "greatest Austrian since Hitler" fashion icon.

Public Enemies (15)

A misfiring gangster flick and a poor relation to the Cagney classic, The Public Enemy. Johnny Depp plays John Dillinger, Christian Bale plays his police hunter nemesis, but both fire blanks under heavy-handed direction from Michael Mann.

Sunshine Cleaning (15)

Ain't no sunshine when this lot come. Amy Adams and Emily Blunt star as two quirky sisters who set up the Sunshine Cleaning business to clean up messy crime scenes. Shame they couldn't disinfect their script of its glib sentimentality.

Telstar (15)

Suitably sleazy look at the life and times of maverick record producer Joe Meek who turned down The Beatles but created some of the most evocative tunes of the 1960s.

LICENSING ACT 2003
Notice of Application for the Grant of a Premises Licence
NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that Cuma Altes has applied to the Licensing Authority of London Borough of Haringey for the grant of a premises licence to permit the sale by retail of alcohol between 11.00am and 23.00pm every day for the premises Elbistan Cafe Bar situated at r/o 329 West Green Road, Tottenham, London N15 3PB. A register of licensing applications can be inspected at Haringey Council, Urban Environment, Units 271-272, Technopark, Ashley Road, Tottenham, London N17 9LN or www.haringey.gov.uk. Any person wishing to submit relevant representations concerning this application must give notice in writing to the London Borough of Haringey, Licensing Team at the address above, giving in detail the grounds of the representation no later than 12th day of August 2009. The council will not entertain representations where the writer requests that his identity remains anonymous. Copies of all representations will be included in the papers presented to the Licensing Authorities Sub Committee and will therefore pass into the public domain. Representations must relate to one or more of the four Licensing Objectives: the prevention of crime and disorder, public safety, the prevention of public nuisance and the protection of children from harm. It is an offence liable on conviction to a fine up to £5000 under section 158 of the Licensing Act 2003 knowingly or recklessly to make a false statement in connection with an application.

CONDITIONS OF ACCEPTANCE FOR ALL ADVERTISEMENTS

Orders are accepted by the Publishers subject to the Standard Conditions agreed between the Newspaper Society and the Institute of Practitioners in Advertising. Save that:

- Advertisements are accepted on the conditions that (a) descriptions relating to goods are accurate and in no way contravene the provisions of the Trade Descriptions Act 1968, and the Fair Trading Act 1973, and (b) the copy complies with the British Code of Advertising Practice. Advertisements offering credit or hire facilities must conform to the Consumer Credit (Advertisements) Regulations 1980.
- 'Classified' Advertisers offering goods or service of a business, commercial or trade nature will, at the discretion of the Publishers, be deemed 'Trade Advertisers', and as such, must include their names in advertisements. A telephone number is an optional addition to these requirements and not an alternative.
- To comply with the Business Advertisements (Disclosure) Order 1977, Trade Advertisers must make it clear that they are selling goods in the course of business either by content, format, size or place of the advertisement or by including words such as 'trade', 'dealer', 'agent', 'wholesaler', '(T)' etc. in the advertisement.
- The Publishers accept no liability whatsoever for any loss or damage however caused arising out of:
 - Any error, inaccuracy or omission in the printing or publishing of any advertisement;
 - Any failure to publish an advertisement on the day / date or day / dates specified by the advertiser; or
 - Any delay in forwarding or omission to forward replies to box numbers to the Advertiser.
- The Publishers will endeavour to publish advertisements on the day / date or day / dates specified by the Advertiser but insertion days / dates cannot be guaranteed.
- Where shrinkage of advertisement occurs for whatever reasons the advertisement will be charged to the nearest full centimetre. This will NOT apply to the full-page advertisements, which remain full pages even after shrinkage.
- The Publishers reserve the right to reject an advertisement or to vary it in any way they deem fit, at any time before publication, whether or not the advertisement has already been accepted for publication.
- Whilst every effort is made to minimise errors in advertisements, mistakes do sometimes occur. Advertisers or their agents should therefore check their advertisements and inform us of any errors immediately. Responsibility cannot be accepted for more than one incorrect insertion. Typographical or minor changes, which do not affect the value of the advertisement, do not qualify for republication or allowances.
- All gross advertising rates (except classified line and semi-display) are subject to and include a 0.1% Advertising Standards Board of Finance surcharge, payable by the advertisers to help finance the self-regulatory control system administered by the Advertising Standards Authority.
- All rates quoted are subject to VAT at the rate currently in force at the time the advertisement appears.
- Should the rate for advertisements be altered the price for remaining insertions shall be revised accordingly or the publishers shall have the right to cancel the unexpired portion of the order.
- The placing of an advertisement order will be deemed an acceptance of these conditions.
- Account facilities are granted at the discretion of the Company.
- All accounts must be settled within the terms agreed by the Company and the Customer.
 - Should an advertiser be in breach of the agreed terms, the publisher shall be entitled to levy a 10% surcharge on the value of the whole debt in respect of accounts with terms of less than 30 days, and any discounts or commissions that had been allowed will be reclaimed.
 - Regular monthly accounts that are in breach of the agreed terms will pay an interest rate of 6% above the current bank of England base rate for each month that the account is overdue and discounts or commissions that had been allowed will be reclaimed. Should Legal action be required the interest will be charged in accordance with the County Court Act 1984.
- Where an advertiser instructs / appoints an advertising agent to act on their behalf, the advertiser will remain jointly and severally liable for payment in respect for an advertisement(s) should the appointed agent fail to pay. For the avoidance of doubt, the agent acts for the advertiser and not for the publisher with the agent being responsible for notifying the advertiser of this liability.
- All queries must be notified, preferably in writing to the accounts department of the publisher within 7 days of the invoice date.
- All digital services are maintained in partnership with the publishers' hosting service providers. Every effort is made to ensure the continuity of these services, but some occasional technical downtime beyond the publishers control may occur. The publisher and its associated companies shall be under no liability if the production and distribution of web services is delayed or prevented by any cause beyond the control of the publisher.
- The Publisher may provide voucher copies for published advertisements in electronic form only subject to certain criteria. Further information is available on request.
- The copyright of advertisements produced wholly or partially by the Publishers belong to the Publishers. Advertisers may not reproduce such advertisements without the Publishers' consent.

Box Numbers
Boxes are open for the receipt of bona fide answers and are not available for distribution of trade canvassing matter. Original testimonials, goods, cash, cash stamps or payments of any kind must not be enclosed. A box Number and postal address are charged as part of the advertisement, i.e. Box No., centre address, There is no charge for forwarding replies.
Box numbers alone are not available for use in 'Trade' advertisements, other than Employment and Business Opportunities.

Holiday & Travel Category
All advertising must contain the name of the advertiser, phone number alone are not permitted.

Data Protection
The service you have requested may require us to carry out a credit search at a credit-referencing agency, which will record the fact that a search has been made. We may need to share your information with other lenders and credit reference agencies. However, we will only use the information from these searches to make credit-granting decisions and, if necessary, for fraud prevention or tracing debtors. Data controller will use your information for administration and analysis. We may share your information with other Tindle Group Newspaper companies or carefully selected third parties. We, or they, may send you details of other goods and services, which may be of interest to you. The information may be provided by letter, telephone or other reasonable means of communication. Calls may be recorded or monitored for training purposes.

Special conditions apply with regard to the advertising of adult services, which are outlined to all persons submitting such advertisements.

Romp and roll down the Rhine

AND now for something... completely different!

It's not often you see a ten foot tall faux-Bavarian powerhouse wandering up and down the Archway Road, but since Jackson's Lane has embraced all things slightly leftfield and cabaret inclined, one should learn to expect the unexpected at the increasingly interesting arts centre.

Hilda and Company took the Edinburgh Festival by storm last year gaining a large cult following and receiving a nomination for Experimentation and Innovation from the Total Theatre Awards.

Best described as an interactive late night Slavic gypsy circus cabaret, Hilda aims to whip you along with a storybook Bavaria... through an outlandish Eastern Europe... to an apocalyptic booty-shaking Jerusalem!

"It's a unique, theatrical spectacle unlike anything that you've ever seen before," said Clare Lewis of Jackson's Lane.

"It's a cabaret promenade so you follow the action around and it really is out of the ordinary. Jackson's Lane programming is becoming very exciting and we're looking forward to an autumn season that is stuffed full of physical theatre and cabaret."

And the night doesn't end with the show as Hilda will be leading die-hard audience members to the Boogaloo pub, opposite the arts centre, afterwards to continue the fun. (Ticket price includes free entry to the Boogaloo).

● Wanderlust takes place on Thursday, July 30 from 8pm. Tickets cost £10. For more details and reservations call the box office on 020 8341 4421.

Join the ride: Hilda Von Friedelberg and Liz Davito prepare to entertain at Jackson's Lane, Highgate

No resistance to Café Anjou's French polish

The Gannets

Café Anjou, 394 Green Lanes, Palmer's Green. 020 8886 7267

IT'S been many a year since we've flown in and, later, waddled away from this little French fancy.

As new restaurants have come and gone we've been distracted from old familiars, but now, with economic pressures crying out for reliable food at affordable prices, we find ourselves back in the bustling, intimate environs of Café Anjou, which just oozes Gallic charm.

It's also the perfect place for Gripey Gannet, who has been suffering all week with various ailments and is now crying out for a little comfort food and sympathy.

Welcoming us with a little scolding over such a long absence, we are quickly ushered to our chairs and find the setting as charming as ever, with lots of lovely Art Nouveau posters dotted around.

But the best art, of course, is that found on our plates, and we quickly jumped on the various menus, quickly choosing the Prix Fixe offering two courses for £12.95 or three for £14.45 – bargain.

For moi, salad of mixed leaves and chick peas – and for Gripey, the ultimate TLC of soup du jour. My salad was packed with peppers, chickpeas, sundried tomatoes and lots of genuine goodness, while Gripey's consisted solely of tomato and basil – and was all the better for it, tasting fresh and homemade and instantly putting a smile on her troubled face.

Fridays are obviously big lunch-time business, as the restaurant was

Sweet return: A packed Café Anjou seemed as popular as ever packed – pensioners and babies seem to figure prominently – and we had to wait a little while for our mains... but they were worth it.

Gripey wolfed down beautiful little medallions of pork with Parma ham, fresh sage and white wine, while I enjoyed poisson du jour – salmon fishcakes with an excellent jus.

A big smile crept across her face as her rehabilitation was complete, and we toasted Café Anjou as the restaurant du jour and tous les jours to come!

● Opening: Daily from 10am to 11pm (no food between 3pm to 6pm), apart from Mondays, 6pm to 11pm.

Need a quick sale?

Always looking at ways to achieve satisfactory sales for vendors, Lanes

Property agents have just agreed an exclusive arrangement with the leading regional auctioneers, Elliott Auctions for the North London area.

"Although we are seeing the 'green shoots' of recovery in the property market, some vendors still need to sell quickly and are prepared to accept a lower price in return for the speed and certainty of an auction sale. There are no chain problems and people do not let you down at the last minute" said Paul Lincoln, Manager at Lanes property agents responsible for this new joint venture.

People tend to think that only wrecks and repossessions are sold at auction, but many are in good order and ready to move into and interest in property auctions is on the increase. A recent auction at Hatfield House attracted more than 300 attendees including investors, who want something more tangible for their money rather than depositing it with banks they no longer trust. Lanes believe that the fusion of their leading independent estate agents network in the area, with in depth local market knowledge combined with the experience and success of the leading professional auctioneers will undoubtedly provide clients with the best possible combination of service and advice.

Auctions take place, approximately every six weeks and a catalogue of properties for sale, together with marketing in the local papers takes place prior to the auction. Viewings are always accompanied by specialised Lanes staff.

There is a strong demand for all types and price ranges of residential /commercial property and land with or without planning consent. If you have a property that would benefit from a well conducted auction sale at the prestigious Hatfield House telephone Paul Lincoln on the Lanes dedicated auction information line 020 8443 5143.

CONDITIONS OF ACCEPTANCE FOR ALL ADVERTISEMENTS

Orders are accepted by the Publishers subject to the Standard Conditions agreed between the Newspaper Society and the Institute of Practitioners in Advertising. Save that:

1. Advertisements are accepted on the conditions that (a) descriptions relating to goods are accurate and in no way contravene the provisions of the Trade Descriptions Act 1968, and the Fair Trading Act 1973, and (b) the copy complies with the British Code of Advertising Practice. Advertisements offering credit or hire facilities must conform to the Consumer Credit (Advertisements) Regulations 1980.

2. 'Classified' Advertisers offering goods or service of a business, commercial or trade nature will, at the discretion of the Publishers, be deemed 'Trade Advertisers', and as such, must include their names in advertisements. A telephone number is an optional addition to these requirements and not an alternative.

3. To comply with the Business Advertisements (Disclosure) Order 1977, Trade Advertisers must make it clear that they are selling goods in the course of business either by content, format, size or place of the advertisement or by including words such as 'trade', 'dealer', 'agent', 'wholesaler', '(T)' etc. in the advertisement.

4. The Publishers accept no liability whatsoever for any loss or damage however caused arising out of:
(a) Any error, inaccuracy or omission in the printing or publishing of any advertisement;
(b) Any failure to publish an advertisement on the day / date or day / dates specified by the advertiser; or
(c) Any delay in forwarding or omission to forward replies to box numbers as advertised.

5. Where shrinkage of advertisement occurs for whatever reasons the advertisement will be charged to the nearest full centimetre. This will NOT apply to the full-page advertisements, which remain full pages even after shrinkage.

6. The Publishers reserve the right to reject an advertisement or to vary it in any way they deem fit, at any time before publication, whether or not the advertisement has already been accepted for publication.

7. Whilst every effort is made to minimise errors in advertisements, mistakes do sometimes occur. Advertisers or their agents should therefore check their advertisements and inform us of any errors immediately. Responsibility cannot be accepted for more than one incorrect insertion. Typographical or minor changes, which do not affect the value of the advertisement, do not qualify for republication or allowances.

8. All gross advertising rates (except classified line and semi-display) are subject to and include a 0.1% Advertising Standards Board of Finance surcharge, payable by the advertiser to help finance the self-regulatory control system administered by the Advertising Standards Authority.

9. All rates quoted are subject to VAT at the rate currently in force at the time the advertisement appears.

10. Should the rate for advertisements be altered the price for remaining insertions shall be revised accordingly or the publishers shall have the right to cancel the unexpired portion of the order.

11. The placing of an advertisement order will be deemed an acceptance of these conditions.

12. Account facilities are granted at the discretion of the Company.

13. All accounts must be settled within the terms agreed by the Company and the Customer.

(1) Should an advertiser be in breach of the agreed terms, the publisher shall be entitled to levy a 10% surcharge on the value of the whole debt in respect of accounts with terms of less than 30 days, and any discounts or commissions that had been allowed will be reclaimed.

(2) Regular monthly accounts that are in breach of the agreed terms will pay an interest rate of 6% above the current bank of England base rate for each month that the account is overdue and discounts or commissions that had been allowed will be reclaimed. Should Legal action be required the interest will be charged in accordance with the County Court Act 1984.

14. Where an advertiser instructs / appoints an advertising agent to act on their behalf, the advertiser will remain jointly and severally liable for any payment in respect of an advertisement(s) should the appointed agent fail to pay. For the avoidance of doubt, the agent acts for the advertiser and not for the publisher with the agent being responsible for notifying the advertiser of this liability.

15. All queries must be notified, preferably in writing to the accounts department of the publisher within 7 days of the invoice date.

16. All digital services are maintained in partnership with the publishers' hosting service providers. Every effort is made to ensure the continuity of these services, but some occasional technical downtime beyond the publishers' control may occur. The publisher and its associated companies shall be under no liability if the production and distribution of web services is delayed or prevented by any cause beyond the control of the publisher.

17. The Publisher may provide voucher copies for published advertisements in electronic form only subject to certain criteria. Further information is available on request.

18. The copyright of advertisements produced wholly or partially by the Publishers belong to the Publishers. Advertisers may not reproduce such advertisements without the Publishers' consent.

Box Numbers
Boxes are open for the receipt of bona fide answers and are not available for distribution of trade canvassing matter. Original testimonials, goods, cash, cash stamps or payments of any kind must not be enclosed. A box Number and postal address are charged as part of the advertisement, i.e. Box No., centre address. There is no charge for forwarding replies.

Box numbers alone are not available for use in 'Trade' advertisements, other than Employment and Business Opportunities.

Holiday & Travel Category
All advertising must contain the name of the advertiser, phone number alone are not permitted.

Data Protection
The service you have requested may require us to carry out a credit search at a credit-referencing agency, which will record the fact that a search has been made. We may need to share your information with other lenders and credit reference agencies. However, we will only use the information from these searches to make credit-granting decisions and, if necessary, for fraud prevention or tracing debtors.

Data controller will use your information for administration and analysis. We may share your information with other Tindle Group Newspaper companies or carefully selected third parties. We, or they, may send you details of other goods and services, which may be of interest to you. The information may be provided by letter, telephone or other reasonable means of communication. Calls may be recorded or monitored for training purposes.

Special conditions apply with regard to the advertising of adult services, which are outlined to all persons submitting such advertisements.

Middlesex University

Reception and Administration Assistant

Starting salary £19,186pa inc London Weighting

An interesting and varied job with the Facilities Management Services team at our flagship Hendon campus. You would provide a friendly and helpful service to all staff, students and visitors and for special events taking place on the campus.

Responsibilities include:

- providing an administrative focal point and reception desk service for the campus
- administrative support, including progressing requests for Estates and Facilities Services
- acting as a point of contact for information and assistance.

You should:

- have recent successful experience in a similar role, and a good appreciation of the importance of a front-line role
- possess proven computer and IT skills
- have good organisational and communication skills, and be able to work well under pressure.

In return the University offers generous annual leave, extensive staff development provision, and a final salary pension scheme.

For an informal discussion about this post please contact Darryl Soekoe on 020 8411 4856.

Spurs bound: Redknapp wants to reunite Crouch with former strike partner Defoe

SPURS LEAD CROUCH CHASE

Redknapp hopeful of beating off Sunderland in bid to land striker

By Lee Husson

HARRY REDKNAPP has tabled a £12million bid for Portsmouth striker Peter Crouch as he looks to freshen up his front line ahead of the new season.

The Tottenham boss, who managed Crouch at Fratton Park as well as at Southampton, is hopeful of bringing the gangly forward to White Hart Lane. Sunderland are also keen on the England ace, with manager Steve Bruce having held talks with Crouch on Wearside, but Redknapp is set to swoop and his old links have put him in a strong position to fight off rival interest.

"It seems Portsmouth want to sell," Redknapp said. "Peter is a player I am definitely interested in. He has played for me twice before and I know what a good player he is."

"I have not spoken to [chief executive] Peter Storrie at Pompey and there are other clubs involved, but it seems like a bit of a free-for-all."

"I'm looking to make one or two signings and he is someone I would love to bring in."

Joining Tottenham would not only see Crouch reunited with Redknapp but also former Portsmouth strike partner Jermain Defoe, who re-joined Spurs in January.

"I spoke to Crouchy over the summer while we were on England duty," Defoe said. "I've played with him for several years, at under-21 and now senior level."

"It's down to him – obviously he's going to go where he is going to play games. If he wants to come here to Spurs it is only going to help the team – it would be fantastic if we can get him."

Meanwhile, defender Chris Gunter has signed for Nottingham Forest in a £1.75m deal after a successful three-month loan spell at the City Ground last season.

Spurs enjoyed a comfortable 3-0 pre-season victory over League Two outfit Bournemouth last Friday.

Goals from Robbie Keane, Defoe and Wilson Palacios secured the win.

Redknapp's men continue their preparations when they face Barcelona in the Wembley Cup on Friday.

Latest loss sees Skolars hit rock bottom

THE London Skolars look set to finish bottom of rugby league's Co-operative Championship One following a crushing 62-4 defeat at home to fellow strugglers Rochdale Hornets.

The Hornets were forced to start the season with a nine point deduction after going into administration, but they have been steadily making up the deficit during the campaign and this latest result leaves the Skolars three points adrift at the foot of the table.

Andy Isherwood led the rout by scoring four tries, while Matt Thomas grabbed the only points for the Skolars.

Meanwhile, the Skolars were hit by another blow this week when general manager Phillip Browne announced his resignation.

The Australian only took up his post in March after arriving from Sydney, but will officially leave the club at the end of the season to take up a post as chief executive of the tag rugby group.

Browne said: "It's been a really good learning curve for me at the club, but I feel it's time to move on to the next challenge."

"I will be leaving the Skolars on good terms, and I'd like to be able to assist the club in future where possible. I believe rugby league has a place down here in the capital, and I'm sure we will continue to see growth of the sport in London."

Skolars' chief executive Hector McNeil added: "On behalf of the club, I would like to wish Phillip all the best in the future."

Hornsey extend lead at the top

PROMOTION from Division Three of the Middlesex County Cricket League is looking increasingly likely for Hornsey after they beat nearest rivals Barnet Bs by 21 runs on Saturday to move 24 points clear at the top of the table.

An excellent innings of 60 from Sandeep Patel helped Hornsey to make 163-9 on a difficult wicket, and Ian Gregory's 4-45 was key in bowling the visitors out for 142.

However, Highgate lost ground in the race for the second promotion spot as they suffered a three-wicket defeat at Barnes.

Jim Denning made 50 as Highgate were dismissed for 200 batting first, but Joe Taylor's unbeaten 87 and 56 from James Brake-Brockman enabled Barnes to reach 201-7.

Meanwhile, North Middlesex and North London both suffered defeats in the second division.

Harrow's Darren Crook took 7-61 as North Middlesex were dismissed for a disappointing 124, and the visitors managed to edge to a two-wicket win as they replied with 125-8.

And North London remain stuck to the foot of the table after being comprehensively outplayed at Twickenham. The hosts amassed 273-5, with Carlos Nunes making an unbeaten 111, before Justin Scriven claimed 5-34 as North London were dismissed for just 125.
